YEN PUTS IN RESIGNATION AS PREMIER, IS TOO BUSY

Foreign Affairs Work Is Heavy Enough He Tells Pres. Hsu

LIANG NOW OUT

Peking Now Speculates As To His Probable Successor

(Staff Wire to the CHINA PRESS) Peking, Jan. 26.—Foreign minister W. W. Yen tonight formally resigned as acting premier, a post to which he was "mandated" by the president yesterday against his will. As a reason for rejecting the president's offer he explained that he was too busy with foreign affairs, and that he was unwilling to be burdened with the office for what he anticipates will be a considerable period before the appointment of a new premier.

WHY LIANG QUIT

(Eastern News Agency) Mukden, Jan. 26.—Regarding the reason that Premier Liang Shih-yi has come to apply to the President for a week's leave of absence despite the fact that the Liang Cabinet has made a fair progress in raising funds required to pass the China New Year, it is generally observed in political circles here that Marshal Chang Tso-lin, reckoning from his own standpoint, has begun to think it rather useless to support the Liang Cabinet at the risk of the military and financial power of Fengtien, and that this has caused Mr. Liang Shih-yi to take the extraordinary step.

Marshal Chang has to all appearance maintained an attitude by which to mediate between Premier Liang and General Wu Pei-fu, and had no intention to oppose the Chihli faction to the end.

LIANG RESIGNS POST

(Reuters' Pacific Service) Peking, Jan. 26.—Mr. Liang Shih-yi's resignation reached the Government this morning. Mr. Yen Kung-cho's is expected this evening.

Dr. W. W. Yen attended the Cabinet meeting today, over which he presided as the senior Minister, but he informed his colleagues that he did not intend to accept the Acting Premiership as his duties at the Wai-chiao-pu precluded his taking over indefinitely, a post requiring such close attention.

Discussions are taking place in Peking today regarding the Premier's resignation and the Minister of Communications. Mr. Kao Ling-wel is mentioned most prominently as the Minister of Communications.

The photo shows Dr. Paul Altendorf, of the United States Secret Service who traced Lindenfeld to Warsaw and caused his arrest.

(Reuters' Service) Washington, Jan. 26.—On behalf of organized labor in the United States Mr. Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, has presented to President Harding a protest against the participation of the United States in the Genoa Conference on the ground that the presence of Soviet delegates would involve the practical recognition of the Soviet Government.

Poincare Urges Quick Work In Banque Matter

(Reuters' Service) Paris, Jan. 26.—Addressing the Finance Committee of the Chamber on the Bill for the rehabilitation of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, Premier Poincare emphasized the reasons for immediate decisions on the principle of the measure. M. Lasterrie, Minister of Finance also spoke.

The Committee adopted a new text of the Bill, differing from the Government's earlier one by substituting for the clause authorizing the Government to assign certain payments due to it with a view to the conclusion of a credit operation, a new clause, authorizing it to negotiate an agreement which however is subject to the Chamber's ratification.

Japanese Diet Leaders Are Grilled For Lack of Policy And State Of Public Morals

Opium, Railway Scandals, Weak Attitude At Washington And Many Other Accusations Hurlled At The Government

(Eastern News Agency) Tokio, Jan. 25.—In the House of Peers, on January 24, Baron Fujimura once again made an interpellation regarding the participation of administrative order and the opium question, and also insisted that the Government should by all means be held responsible for crimes such as the South Manchuria Railway scandal case, the assassination of the late Premier, Mr. Hara, the criminal case of Tokio officials and other similar offences.

Premier Takahashi, in reply, said it was a matter for great regret that public morality on the part of government and municipal officials has of late considerably been relaxed and that the Government would exercise a more strict control over them in the future. After a few more such questions and answers, the Diet was adjourned.

NO POLICY, HE SAYS

In the House of Representatives, on the same day, Mr. K. Mochizuki accused the Government of lack of any definite policy towards the Washington Conference, and argued that the dignity of the Japanese nation would be greatly injured if Ogasawara Island should not be included within the scope of defence.

With regard to the Shantung question, Mr. Mochizuki condemned the weak attitude of the Japanese delegates, setting forth his opinion that Japan was placed in a position of an accused by the formation of a research commission on Far Eastern problems and that this was solely due to the fact that the Japanese delegates were incompetent.

Hereupon, Count Uchida, Minister of Foreign Affairs, after stating that he was not yet in a position to make a detailed answer relating to the Washington Conference, as it is now in session, promised that he would explain as far as circumstances permit and gave a general explanation with regard to various points interpellated.

SUN RALLYING SUPPORT; CALLS KWEILIN PARLEY

(Special To The China Press) Peking, Jan. 23.—Calling of a conference to discuss further plans for the Southern expedition against the North is Dr. Sun Yat-sen's latest plan, according to reports received by the Peking Government from its intelligence officers in Kwangtung and Hongkong. The conference will, say these reports, be held at Kweilin before the Chinese New Year, and the provinces of Szechuen, Yunnan and Kweichow, in addition to Kwangtung, have been invited to attend it.

At this conference it is understood that a Commander-in-Chief of the allied Southern forces will be appointed, while a military budget will be worked out and plans will be made for organizing the various units of the expedition where these units will be assembled after the Chinese New Year. Although Dr. Sun appears to be inactive at present, plans for his campaign against the North are, as a matter of fact, being pushed forward vigorously.

For a time it was stated that the provinces of Yunnan, Szechuen, Kweichow and even Kwangtung and Kwangsi would send no troops to Kweilin before the Chinese New Year. The fact is, however, according to these reports from foreign sources, that the political situation in the North has caused the Southern provinces to change their plans.

Troops from all five of these provinces are stated to be on their way to Kweilin already, and it is expected that considerable numbers of the allied Southern forces will be concentrated at Kweilin before the end of this month.

(Special To The China Press) New York, Jan. 26.—Prohibition Agent Haynes today declared that 98 percent of the liquor seized in raids made by the prohibition enforcement forces contains poisonous fusel oil. An increase in alcoholism during the holidays was not surprising, he said, and had little effect on prohibition enforcement.

ALLIES CAN PAY IF CUT ARMIES, ASSERTS BORAH

(Reuters' Service) Washington, Jan. 26.—In the course of the Senate debate on the Allied debts funding bill Senator Borah declared that the Allies could meet their indebtedness if they revised the Treaty of Versailles and reasonably reduced their armies. Senator Borah particularly attacked the French desire to maintain an army approaching 1,000,000 men, while the German army had been reduced to 100,000.

BAR SOVIET OR WE'LL NOT GO TO GENOA IS DECISION OF AMERICA

Contention Now Is Raised That Attendance Would Be Automatic Recognition Of "Red" Govt. And Negation Of Previous Policy Of United States Regarding Russia—Conditions Held Useless

CONFERENCE WORK ALSO IS FACTOR

Must Show Achievement Of Definite Results Is Opinion—End Of Agenda Reached But First Item Still Is Unsettled Due To Far East Questions

BY FREDERICK WILLIAM WILE (Trans-Pacific News Service Exclusive To The China Press)

Washington, January 25.—It is understood that American acceptance of the invitation to attend the Genoa Conference has been made conditional upon the exclusion of the Soviet representatives and the achievement of definite result at the Disarmament Conference here.

It is held that any meeting with the Soviet representatives constitutes recognition, thereby negating the whole policy of America with regard to Russia. It is considered useless to impose conditions on the Soviet on account of the gulf between agreement and possible fulfillment.

NAVY FACT STILL OPEN

Washington, January 25.—Although the Conference has reached the final subject on its agenda, it is as yet unable finally to agree on the first subject taken up, that of limitation of naval armaments as it was informally agreed that the naval treaty should be suspended until agreement had been reached on the Far Eastern questions.

Meanwhile there has arisen the fortifications dispute between Britain and Japan (America not being a party,) as Japan is being hampered by communications from the Tokyo government. This dispute has not attained the prominence of the French and British one, but shows an equal divergence of views on account of the British insistence on being given a free hand south of the equator.

It is reported that France now is willing to abandon her claim to the New York-Azores cable, formerly German, which may appease Italy who refuses to adhere to the Pacific cable agreement until assured just treatment in the disposition of the former German cables in the Atlantic.

ART. 4 STILL ALIVE

Despite criticism, the American view still is that the elimination of article four of the "open door" resolution does not minimize the importance of the resolution. Nothing is lost since it is pointed out that the right still exists to raise the question of the validity of all concessions in the light of the open door principle. It is also expected that the Chinese will raise article four again in some other form.

Its purpose is served in the agreement of the powers to submit publicly all commitments relating to China thus making possible the settling of conflicts and also bringing out of concessions whose nature is manifestly unfair, while those so unfair that they cannot be published, automatically lose their validity. It is improbable that these latter will be dealt with by the Conference owing to lack of time.

Inclusion of the resolution forbidding railway discriminations in the scope of the open door board is construed as putting added teeth in that board which it is desired to make as strong as possible.

JAPAN NOW IN FAVOR

(Reuters' Special Service) London, Jan. 25.—The opening of the eleventh week of the Washington Conference was marked by the gratifying news that the Siberian question had practically been disposed of by the Far Eastern Committee's acceptance of Japan's undertaking in this connection and that also an agreement had been reached regarding the inapplicability of the Pacific Treaty to the Japanese homeland. It is evidently still hoped that accord may be reached with regard to the Shantung controversy, which the American Delegation and Senators regard as essential to the success of the Conference.

The Daily Telegraph's New York correspondent says that the American attitude regarding the Japanese underwent a rather important change during the last few weeks. The conciliatory spirit of the Japanese in many affairs, including the Asiatic mainland, has been increasingly recognized and China's wrongs were admitted, but he thinks that the proceedings of the Conference have shown the Americans that many of these wrongs were self-inflicted and were the result of the lack of a stable government.

The correspondent says that the text of Count Uchida's speech regarding the evacuation of Siberia created a favorable impression and the emphasis he laid on the fact that the Anglo-Japanese Alliance would remain in force until the new Quadruple Treaty became effective is expected to have due weight in the United States where approval of the Conference's work, without being extended to debate or parity.

New U. S. Tariff Bill Soon Ready

(Reuters' Service) Washington, Jan. 26.—The Republican leaders in the Senate have given an assurance to the Republican leaders in the House of Representatives that the Permanent Tariff Bill, which is to be reported to the Senate early in February, will be passed before the end of the session.

given by members Nomad Oasis, their wives and lady friends. 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Sight-seeing tour of Shanghai. 4:00 p.m. Tea and reception, Chinese garden. 8:30 p.m. Motion pictures—Scenes from China, etc., aboard the Keystone State, open to all Shrine Ladies.

The second and third day's programs are identical with those published for the Divan and party.

LL. GEORGE IS HIT HARD FOR 'OPEN' POLICY

Grey And Asquith Take Premier To Task For New Methods (Special To The China Press) London, Jan. 26.—The Independent Liberals meeting today placed themselves as opposed to the Lloyd George government.

Grey And Asquith Take Premier To Task For New Methods

Viscount Grey and Mr. Asquith were the principal speakers and both attacked the government. Viscount Grey attacked the method of conducting foreign affairs through conferences, hitting, but not by name, the Washington Conference. The Allied Superior Council had destroyed Franco-British confidence, he asserted.

an division, is now predicted by many close observers.

One of the foremost Democratic leaders confirms the suggestion that ex-President Woodrow Wilson is not advising the Democrats to fight the treaties. The correspondent is of the opinion that the final scope and character of an international agreement will probably be reached within the next fortnight without complications. One great advantage of the Conference is that the delegates, having laid on the table all their cards regarding the Far East, China will have a new start in solving the intricacies of self-government under the protection of the concert of Powers represented at the Conference.

U. S. TRIES TO HELP

(Reuter's Service)
Washington, Jan. 26.—During the conference at the White House it is understood that President Harding and Mr. Hughes made a suggestion to Mr. Alfred Sze for the settlement of the Shantung question. Nevertheless in both Chinese and Japanese quarters it was later declared that no agreement had been reached, and that none was expected for several days.

IRIDESCENT IS HYDERABAD IN PRINCE'S HONOR

(Reuter's Service)
London, Jan. 26.—Reuter's special correspondent with the Prince of Wales telegraphs:

Last night the great city of Hyderabad was transformed into a place of a thousand enchantments behind an interminable trelis-work of illuminations. Every street was narrowed to a central avenue bounded by screens of soft glowing splendour, behind which squatted or lounged a multitude waxing and waning in the fitful shadows, which the police estimate to have totalled 300,000.

The Char Minar was an exquisite tracery of lambent flame with the Dastar crest of the Crescent and Cross burning fiercely over one arch and the Prince of Wales's Feathers streaming in brilliance from the other arch. The Chowmahalla Palace, where the state banquet was held, was one vast glare of iridescence.

Never has an Indian night looked down upon a more magical picture, pencilled in shimmering fire with designs full of mystic traditions.

The only official engagement of his Royal Highness today was the review of the troops of the Second-erated Garrison after breakfast. The route all the way from Palakuma Castle, about seven miles, was lined with holiday crowds in their best and most brilliant turbans, keeping the Prince busy acknowledging their demonstrations of friendliness.

Semenoff's Aide Is Sent To Jail

(Dalla News Agency)

Harbin, Jan. 23.—General Klergo, formerly Chief of Semenov's Staff, who is said to have posed as an official of the French Consulate specially authorised to hold up Russian goods for the payment of Russian debts to the French Government, has been arrested in Manchuria and sent to the Lutsihar jail.

His arrest is due to his assumption of this false title as well as many alleged criminal charges connected with his selling Russian goods in Manchuria and the organisation of White Guard detachments in the region of the Chinese Eastern Railway.

During his last sojourn in Manchuria the amount of goods he managed to sell to one firm reached the sum of ¥100,000. Even the reactionary circles are said to be satisfied with his imprisonment.

FRANCE SENDING ENVOY TO TREAT WITH GT. BRITAIN

(Special To The China Press)

Paris, Jan. 21.—Today's Petit Parisien states that decisive conversations between France, represented by Ambassador St. Aulaire, and Great Britain, represented by Lord Curzon, will take place in London this coming week.

It is M. Poincaré's policy to continue through regular diplomatic channels the conversations begun at Cannes. Mr. Lloyd George has agreed to this plan and has also stated that an Anglo-French treaty of guaranty can be signed only after the most important of the questions outstanding between the two countries have been settled. The French instructions to Ambassador St. Aulaire were drafted at the Quai d'Orsay on Friday and are now nearly ready.

Two essential questions raised by the British Government are those of Asia Minor and Tangiers. Great Britain's views on these questions have already been communicated to the French Government in several notes, and the French reply to them is expected to be ready early next week.

Thus it is felt that the subjects to be covered by the coming conversations between Ambassador St. Aulaire and Lord Curzon can be disposed of promptly, leaving the Anglo-French pact of guaranty and similar problems open for favorable settlement at an early date.

WARNS LENIN TO SHUN GENOA AS DEN OF "WOLVES"

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, Jan. 20.—What the workmen and the peasants of Soviet Russia think in connection with the memorandum issued by Lloyd George about the desirability of Russian political leaders being present at the coming Conference at Genoa, may be seen from the following letter of a soldier of the Soviet Army published in the Pravda (Truth) under the heading "Safety First." "The international capitalistic leaders invite Lenin to the Economic Conference at Genoa. Well and good for us. However, Comrades, are they in a position to promise us the safety of our dear old Ilyich Lenin? It is questionable whether they can control the frantic hatred of the emigrants thrown out of the country by the Great Russian Revolution and helped by all the foes of the Soviet Republic. "No, they cannot give assurance and we cannot take it for granted that no untoward acts will be directed against Comrade Lenin. Therefore, Comrades, take care of the old man and do not let him go. There is always danger among the wolves."

RUSS FAMINE IS NOT YET ABATED

In the Kamensk district, Ekaterinburg Province, 15,000 famine sufferers without any help were registered on January 1. The peasants in the district have killed all their live stock.

The spring sowing campaign in the Chuvash tribe began on the 9th instant, but the prospect is very gloomy as 80 percent of the horses have been killed by the people for food.

NOTED BANKER SLAIN BY MOTOR

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Jan. 25.—The well-known banker, Mr. Alonzo Barton Hepburn, has died from the injuries he received when he was knocked down by a motor bus. Mr. Hepburn was 75 years of age.

Alonzo Barton Hepburn was born at Colton, N. Y., July 24, 1834. Following his graduation from Middlebury College in 1871, he became an instructor in mathematics at St. Lawrence Academy and later served as principal of the Ogdensburg Educational Institute. He was admitted to the New York bar and for several years practised law at Colton.

In 1892 Mr. Hepburn was named comptroller of the currency. INTERNAL STRIFE HURT CHINA, SAYS U. S. EDUCATOR

Professor Treat Explains Conference Failure To Rotarians

Professor Payson Treat, of Leland Stanford university, in an address to the members of the Rotary club at their weekly luncheon yesterday, attributed the failure of China's delegates at the Washington Conference to achieve anything of real value to the disturbed internal condition of their home country.

"American sentiment, interest and goodwill are faced with the facts as we see them in Peking and in every province—corruption, bribery, internecine warfare, inefficiency, uncontrolled militarism," he said.

Professor Treat, who has been a close student of Far Eastern affairs for 16 years and has been a teacher in Japanese universities, expressed the belief that the Washington Conference is a success "even if we get nothing else than a 1922 definition of 'the Open Door' and a pledge from the Powers to abide by the new rules formulated."

"When a publicist regards China's failure to achieve more concrete results at Washington as due to lack of aggressiveness on the part of China's delegates and an inefficient publicity campaign, he omits nine-tenths of the story," he continued.

CONFERENCE A SUCCESS
"The Washington Conference is a success. It is a step forward. It has unscrambled some of the eggs in the omelet, will prevent more eggs being broken into the omelet and clears the way for a gradual elimination of the omelet—and we must remember that many eggs were broken into it prior to 1915."

Professor Treat said his talk was the reaction of an American university man, who has studied the Far East, to the Conference.

"A dangerous situation was developing between Japan and America—not in the United States, not in California, but in China," he said. "Something had to be done to bring about better relations, some step forward was necessary to clear up misunderstandings and eliminate misconceptions."

"It was essential that the liquid mass of difficulties be boiled down, leaving a residuum of difficulties to be removed. It was urgent that the current misinformation regarding the Far East should be refuted."

Professor Treat said that phrases now on the lips of the world's readers such as The Twenty-One Demands, The Open Door, Integrity of China, are really understood by but few.

"There are misunderstandings and misconceptions and if these are removed by the conference, it is a wonderful step forward," he said.

JAPANESE PLAY CAREFULLY
"A new definition of The Open Door will be recorded and new rules announced. Then the nations must play the game under the new rules."

"Under the old rules Japan has played the game very carefully, and cleverly and made few steps without following a European precedent."

"The Washington Conference will define 'China' as a territorial entity. It will determine whether or not Manchuria, Outer Mongolia, Tibet, are parts of China and thus be able to settle specifically certain territorial limits with which Japan, Britain and Soviet Russia are particularly interested."

In stressing his point that China's failure was due to China's own internal conditions, he said: "Peoples have rights but peoples also have duties. States have rights and states also have duties. China has rights but it must be remembered that China, too, has duties, to China, to the powers interested in China, and to the world."

He regarded the removal of extra-territoriality as "a danger to China at this time for those powers possessed of these privileges are protecting China from the dangers and weaknesses that menace her."

Professor Treat is leaving Friday on the Tenyo for Canton and Hongkong and will return to America from the South on the Tenyo.

GREEKS DENY RUMOR

A Judicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists ask a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed.

Japanese Political Party For Peace And Equality

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Tokio, Jan. 26.—A manifesto, passed by a mass meeting of the Kokuminto party this afternoon, declares:

"Peace and Equality are the twin post-war ideas of the world, the former asserting itself in armament limitations abroad, and the latter in the claim for the removal of class distinctions at home; this tendency finds expression in the demand for universal suffrage in the political world, in labor trouble, in economic circles, and in the price question in domestic life."

"The outcome of the Washington Conference will encourage keener international competition in various fields of peaceful activity."

Chinese Doctors In Parley During China New Year

During the old China New Year holidays, the medical men from all parts of China will meet in the Shanghai Y.M.C.A. building for a week's conference. The conference will be opened with a general reception to be held in the Ningpo Guild on Wednesday. In the morning session, scientific papers will be read and discussed by medical men of great experience. To these meetings, all interested in medical science, both Chinese and foreign, are invited.

In the afternoon there will be at least two illustrated lectures on health problems specially arranged for the general public.

Besides, the committees in charge have prepared a complete exhibition of the latest development in medical science. A full program will be published and the general public and medical men are asked to make as frequent visits as possible during the conference.

Better Lacquer In London Says Museum Curator

(Reuter's Service)
London, Jan. 26.—Fearing that Japan is hardly likely to produce much more lacquer equal to the artistic standard of her earlier work, the Victoria and Albert Museum appeals to the public to send specimens to fill the gaps created by the dispersal of many private collections and simultaneously acknowledges the receipt of several valuable collections.

It now claims that even Japanese students are able to inform themselves in London to an extent which is not easy in their own country.

Reserves After Armed Robbers

In view of the increasing number of armed robberies in the Settlement special parties of Reserve police are patrolling the streets. Despite this extra precaution, however, two additional robberies were reported to the police of the Hongkong station today.

Nine or ten armed robbers entered a Chinese house at 945 Miller Road about 6 o'clock last night and escaped with $700 in $5 and $10 bills, $400 in Mex. and $20 in change after threatening the occupants of the house. The house is the home of the comprador for Probst-Hanbury and Company, and rent collections made during the day were taken there last night to be checked up. The robbers, evidently aware of that fact, raided the house while the money was being counted.

After firing two shots six men, one armed with a pistol and five with knives, escaped with clothing and jewelry valued at $400 from a Chinese house at 811 East Yuhang Road at 8:30 o'clock last night.

ATTACK WU AS ACTUATED ONLY BY SELFISHNESS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 23.—An attack on General Wu Pei-fu has been launched by General Shieh Tien-hua, leader of the "autonomous army of Hunan and Hupeh" in a circular telegram entitled, "A revolution of the truth regarding General Wu Pei-fu's attack on Premier Liang Shih-yi."

This document, after reviewing General Wu's career in Hunan and Hupeh, asserts that while his ostensible motives at present are patriotic and have consequently won him some popular approval, he is actually inspired by a fear that his Antlute enemies may return to power or that his own position may be endangered by General Chang Tso-lin's renewed grip on the finances of the capital.

It continues to review the various changes made by his enemies against Premier Liang, and to offset them with counter-charges of a similar nature against General Wu, drawing the conclusion that General Wu is not in any respect superior to Premier Liang, and that his motive at present is merely self-interest and therefore unworthy of the support of the people. In conclusion, the telegram warns the public against blindly following the banner of the Lo-yang war-lord.

WU PEI-FU GIVEN $1,400,000

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankow, Jan. 25.—General Wu Pei-fu has given orders to General Hsiao Yao-nan, Tuchen of Hupeh, requesting him to raise military funds to the amount of $2,000,000 in order to tide over the China New Year. Accordingly, Tuchen Hsiao applied for a loan to the Chinese Bankers' group of Hankow, which, however, has declined the application on the ground that it cannot afford to disburse with such a large sum of money. Four native banks have each undertaken to provide a sum of $200,000 respectively and the Sino-Italian Bank a sum of $600,000. It is expected that General Hsiao Yao-nan will today remit the total sum of $1,400,000 above mentioned to Lo-yang.

FINNS FINANCING REVOLT TO FILL TIMBER CONTRACT

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, January 20.—Information from Karelia transmitted through Petrograd reveals what is said to be the true cause of the Karelian adventure. The information states that the Karelian White Guard rebellion is financed by the Helsingfors Gutnaut Trading Co., Ltd. A large part of the shares of the company is held by persons closely associated with the Finnish Government and has the former chairman of the Finnish Seim as its head.

The company had concluded an agreement for the exportation to England of 1,000,000 telegraph poles and a huge quantity of logs. The company intended to fill the order by using the woods of Karelia, but unable to execute its plan under the Soviet control of Karelia, the company financed the White Guard adventure.

Meantime, having the contract in hand, the company expects to raise money by selling shares in Norway. This plan has fallen through as the Norwegians refrain from backing up the Finnish adventure.

6 New Wireless Stations Planned

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 25.—The Wireless Telegraphy Commission appointed by the Cabinet in December 1920, has reported recommending the erection of thermionic valve stations in England, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Singapore and Hongkong, for which the Imperial Government will presumably be responsible, should not exceed in the aggregate $253,000.

A station equipped with an arch and machinery like that at Leadfield is planned for Singapore, but with different antennae, while a station resembling Singapore, but with less costly antennae is proposed for Hongkong.

200 Students Get Diplomas From Mission Schools

(China Press Correspondence)

Foochow, Jan. 24.—The last few days have been very busy ones for the various Missions and their friends. Commencement exercises have been numerous and interesting. The Union Theological School and the Union Vernacular Middle School led off by having their commencement exercises in the Chapel of the Union Theological School. Next came the Union commencement exercises of the various schools of the Methodist Mission.

The Middle School of the Woman's College of South China, the Anglo-Chinese High and Middle Schools, the Florence Nightingale Nurses Training School, the Foochow Girls' Higher Primary, the Foochow Boys' Higher Primary School, the Siong In Dong Boys' Higher Primary School together with the Union Kindergarten School held their commencement exercises in the large Methodist Church on Nantai.

Bishop F. T. Keeney delivered the commencement address. Rev. Uong Gang Huo preached the baccalaureate sermon on the previous Sabbath. The High School, the Middle School and the Higher Primary of the American Board Mission and the Union Medical College held their commencement in the L. Memorial Church in the city. The C. M. S. High School, Middle School, Normal School and Higher Primary held their exercises in the college chapel.

All told there were about 200 young men and women who received certificates of graduation at these various commencement exercises. During this last term all of the school buildings have been full to overflowing and the prospects are that in the coming term there will be fully as large a registration.

The Quaints

The Quaints, "direct from the leading English theaters," made their opening appearance at the Lyceum last night, and amply repaid the large audience that greeted them. Considering the weather, the size of the "house" was astonishing, or would have been if Shanghai theater-goers had not known what to expect of this surprisingly capable organization.

The program consisted of a number of sketches, musical and otherwise, that delighted the audience. Altogether there were twenty-two numbers, each one of which was a real treat.

The same program will be repeated tonight, with a change of bill Saturday.

Amtraco Loses Chance At Climbing Up In League

Defeat By Bearcats Puts Them Far Down In Standings: S.A.S. Beat "Y"

Irie's Bearcats put a bad crimp in the championship hopes of the American Trading company's basketball stars last night, when they beat them by a score of 39-22, on the "Y" floor, and forced them down to a percentage of 80-40 behind themselves, and 300 behind the Stroksides, occupants of second position. And the American School, by its win over the rejuvenated Y.M.C.A. team, climbed up to 583 percent, at fourth position.

The Amtraco five lost—just naturally lost. Tinkham, Nichols, Maloney and all the rest of the Hong team's best bets were in the game, changing around to find an effective lineup, but without avail. The Bearcats took the game at the beginning, ran up a score to half time of 25-10, and then slacked down in the second half to easy going basketball.

The Bearcats on their win passed over one of two last games of the schedule which might topple them from their 1,000 percent standing. There are now in a fair way to set a basketball record such as Shanghai has not yet seen—a full season without defeat. Should they win through their second match with the Stroksides February 24, they should sail home with a pennant untarnished and clean.

Tinkham started the game on the bench. Maloney took his place at center. Mal, it would seem on instructions, dropped back to guarding his basket, and while he did well on that job, especially with his bullet-like forward passing, the attack suffered some without strong offensive work from center. In the middle of the first half, however, Tink was put in at forward. Nichols dropped back to guard and Young was benched, but the Bearcats played right along, piling up as much of a score as suited them.

Irie was not exerting himself last night, though he was in the game all the time. Spectators missed his usual spectacular style. He gave his team mates more chance at scoring than usual. Gray started at point getting, scoring 7 from the floor and 7 more from fouls, mostly chargeable to Maloney's football tactics. Irie and Nichols got five each. The other points were scattered.

The "Y" came back into the league in the first game last night with several substitutions from the American school body, and played the School proper a creditable game, losing 18-43. The "Y" will play out their schedule now. If present plans carry through.

Last night's scores were:
Bearcats 39 Amtraco 22
Gray I.F. Smith
Roxburgh Nichols
Pettitt R.F. Tinkham
Irie C. Maloney
Lewis L.G. Young Nichols
Geldhart R.G. Aline

Goals from floor: Gray 7, Irie 5, Nichols 5, Roxburgh 3, Smith 3, Maloney 1, Kline 1, Tinkham 1, total 24.
In foul: Gray 7, Irie 4, Nichols 4.
Referee: Mr. Bartlett. Umpire: Mr. Van Hook.

American School 43, Y.M.C.A. 18

KIANGWAN CARD FOR HOLIDAYS IS FIRST CLASS

Kiangwan's New Year Meeting, which opens Monday, has an even hundred stables entering 285 horses of which 154 are griffins. The meet lists eleven races each for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and ten for the off-day, Saturday, Feb. 4. The Champions as usual is scheduled for Wednesday and the Kiangwan Grand National Steeplechase for Saturday. Racing is to start on the first three days at 11:30 a.m., with no fifteen interval, and on Saturday at 1 p.m.

The meet, from a glance over the book of entries should provide racing of the high grade seen at spring or autumn meets. There are few of Shanghai's best ponies not listed to start. Practically every stable of consequence has entered the meet. The entry list for nearly every race is large. The Kiangwan Griffin Plate, with its $2,000 purse, the classic for untried ponies, listed on the first day's program has 65 entries by the best local stables. Winsome and Hasty has two new youngsters slated for the event. The Rook and The Robin. If they were good enough to get into the same stables with the Hawk, The Oriole and the other stars of that string they must have shown great class on the auction block. Perchance also has two ponies entered for the event, Foundation and Civilization, and Henry Morris enters Finchfield and Moorfield. Other good owners entering the race are McBains, Liddell, Durkill and Watson.

Another prize race for ponies that have never before started slated for Monday is the Club Cup with $2,000 added. A long list of prominent owners have entered. The last race of the day will be for the newly presented Shanghai Race Club Cup. Aside from the added $500 to the winner, a special cup goes to the successful jockey from the City Race Club. Ponies must be bona fide property of members of the International Recreation Club, ridden by Chinese riders.

The Derby Stakes for griffins of 1922, set for Tuesday, with its big purse of $5,000 has drawn forty ponies into the list. The best stables in Shanghai are competing. Other races until the running of the Champions Sweepstakes on Wednesday are but the ordinary running to qualify for the big event.

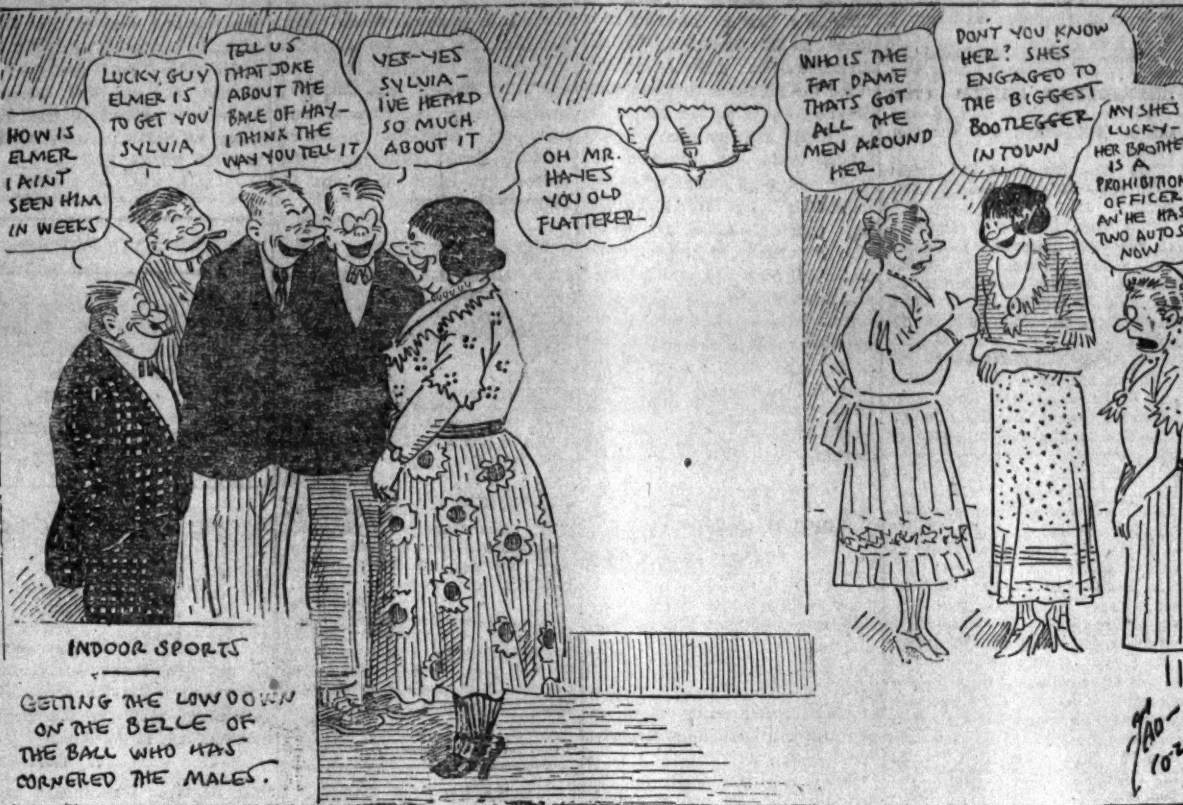

Last year's winner of the Kiangwan Champions, Salvation is one of the runners this year, as is Old Bill who ran second last New Year's. The Hawk, which was third, is not entered at the meet, the stable owner, Winsome and Hasty, confining itself to the starting of their two new griffins, The Rook and The Robin. Horses of first quality which are likely to qualify are Maresfield, Letchfield, Petersfield, Nationalist, Salvation, Old Bill and others.

The Kiangwan Grand National Steeplechase in its entry list of 15 has the best jumpers in Shanghai down to start. Old Bill, Petersfield, Djomah, Tita, Letchfield, Liability and Social Union all are scheduled to run. The distance is two miles and a half.

Eleven ball players for one! That's a new record hung up in the trading of professional players. The St. Louis Browns are giving up no less than eleven players for Dave Danforth, the star pitcher of the American Association. Danforth is a member of the Columbus team. Manager Rowland, of Columbus, will get Pitchers, Sanders, Barrell, Malmero, Loudermilk and Second Baseman Quinn. Next Spring he will have the call on three other players; in the Spring of 1923 he must get two more and in 1924 one more player. This is Danforth's second trip to the major leagues. He was a member of the White Sox in 1917.

FAR EAST GOLF ASS'N URGED AT HONGKONG

A Far Eastern Golfing Association which would affiliate members of all clubs in the Far East from India to China, and further north is desired, was suggested by Captain E. I. M. Barrett at the banquet given by the Royal Hongkong Golf Club in the Southern port after the recent interport match.

Capt. Barrett urged that the association be formed immediately with a strong start here in China, without waiting for golfing men and clubs of other districts to come in. Aside from the organization of Far Eastern golf Capt. Barrett urged as a big advantage, that members leaving one port for another could immediately become playing members of his new home port instead of going on a waiting list as is required at present.

Another significant golf point brought up at the banquet was a remark by Hon. Mr. A. G. Stephen, president of the club, when he spoke of the difficult conditions controlling the play for the Hongkong-Shanghai interport golf trophy which has been held in the southern port for several years.

"It does seem a pretty hopeless task for a visiting team to recover the cup under the conditions under which it is played at present," he said, "and I think I can promise on behalf of the Royal Hongkong Golf Club that it will very favorably consider any modification of these conditions which the Shanghai Club would like to suggest. I do not see by what other means the competition can be made more interesting and I do not see any prospect of the cup leaving Hongkong unless these conditions are modified. No doubt the team will carry that message back to their colleagues in Shanghai."

The suggestion met with generous applause on the part of the large gathering of Hongkong club members attending the banquet.

J. L. Mears, 18 points, 1st.
T. McKenna, 37 points, 2nd.

W. R. Tipton, 50 points, 4th.

A. J. Maitland, 71 points, 10th.
R. L. Newman, 72 points, 11th.
A. Tilsley, 72 points, 12th.

A short distance handicap will be arranged later in which some good running no doubt will be seen. Tomorrow's runs take place wet or fine.

Only Three Matches Are Listed For Over Holidays

Engineers Cup Game Feature Tomorrow; International Cup Monday

Holiday football so far has but three matches listed, two of which will be for special trophies, quite aside from the regular fixtures of the Shanghai Football League.

Two games are scheduled for tomorrow and one for Monday though it is likely that other friendly matches will be announced today.

The big match tomorrow will be that for the Marine Engineers' Challenge Cup, now held by the Shanghai Football Club on their win last year over the Engineers by a score of 3-1. The match is billed to be played on the Club Field, at the Race Course, with the kickoff set for 3 p.m. Mr. H. F. Marshall will referee.

The following team will represent the Marine Engineers—
A. McLean; V. Elliott; T. W. R. Wilson; R. Tomlinson; G. Crawford; J. Falconer; A. Clark; T. Wade; G. Morris; A. Knox; A. S. Russell. Reserves: M. D. Marshall; H. Rouison; W. Archer.

The Club's players have not yet been announced.

The second regular match tomorrow will be a postponed second division event, between the Rangers and the Portuguese. The match will be played on the Polo Grounds commencing at 3 o'clock, with Mr. Jones refereeing.

The International Cup first round is scheduled for Monday. (Continued on Page 6)

Prices Must Fall In Japan Inouye Warns Merchants

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Tokyo, Jan. 21.—The following is a fuller version of the speech of Mr. Inouye, Governor of the Bank of Japan, at the Tokyo Clearing House:

Mr. Inouye declared that prices in Japan must come down if the activity of Japanese foreign trade is to be recovered. Exports and imports, he pointed out, during the period of 1921 fell off Yen 710,000,000 and Yen 770,000,000 respectively from that of 1920 and the balance against Japan at the present time is Yen 430,000,000.

This remarkable drop Mr. Inouye attributes to the maintenance of high prices for the commodities of this country, and he insisted that Japan is to have a future share in the export business of the world then her producers must meet the situation squarely and lower prices.

Going into the question of the increased sale of raw silk at higher prices, Mr. Inouye stated that it would doubtless halt the tendency of an excess of imports over exports for the first half of the year, but too much faith ought not to be placed in the fact.

The silk export he said, for the first half of the year would not exceed Yen 200,000,000, and this was not so greatly in advance of the shipment for the same period of 1921. In that year Japan was compelled to face a decrease of Yen 150,000,000 in her international receivable accounts and had to apply a large amount of specie held abroad for the settling of the balance on foreign trade.

In dealing with the future excess of imports over exports, he continued: "We will have to do the same thing, and that is going to make the money market at home tight. It will likewise affect the exchange situation, and for that reason should be given careful consideration by bankers and financiers.

"At the beginning of the year of 1921 financial and economic readjustment was proceeding apace. Then came the lowering of the British and American central bank rates in May or June last. This gave some Japanese the idea that the economic situation in this country would soon be revived. They failed to see the difference between the conditions prevailing here and in England and the United States, with the result that the downward tendency of prices was checked and in many instances the prices of certain commodities went up and the readjustment of the situation ended abruptly.

"Then came the second half of the year and with it the excess of imports over exports. The exchange banks began to feel the pressure of shortage of funds abroad, the exchange tightened, and by December rates on call money stood above three sen.

"Of course such rates placed obstacles in the way of the healthy development of the economic and financial communities of the country," he said, "and if one bank starts to demand payment of its call loans to other banks it is bound to send the rates soaring still higher. This condition is not sound and must be remedied at once."

Mr. Inouye in conclusion said that economy of consumption was the only way out of the present difficulty, and it rested with the Government to begin the policy of retrenchment in expenditure. Speculation, looseness and extravagance must be eliminated. Import must be cut down and economic readjustment that would bring about lower costs of production, achieved.

Rugby XV Leave Today For Game With Hankow

rugby impossible. The test match resulted in a 3-3 draw.

The up-country port, according to Hankow advices is having as difficult a time in selecting their team as did Shanghai. Various divisions of the players have confused the judges as to which combination would be the better. It was hoped that Saturday's match might decide the selection, but snow and mud made real rugby impossible: whenever a promising opening offered for either side it usually resulted in the player slipping and falling under a shower of mud.

It is believed however that the previous trials of the players will permit the selection of a team that will be close to the best of Hankow's talent, so that Shanghai would be assured a stiff game on Tuesday.

The New York price advanced

The market here today opened steady, with sellers of Sterling

There were Gold Dollar sellers at 74 1/2 for cash, 72 1/2 for

Owing to the very near approach of the holidays, there is little of no business being done in any of the markets.

Freight Market

In their fortnightly freight market report of yesterday, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

"The situation in both our outward freight markets—to Europe and America—is identical so that there is no need to write about them separately and the simplest way of describing them is to say that they are both practically 'dead' for the time being, at any rate."

Eastward:—Since last writing the China coast trade has been absolutely dislocated in the South by the seamen's strike in Hongkong and this, of course, has had some effect on Northern trades, there is consequently no chartering from the North to Southern Ports and this, combined with the near approach of China New Year, has made the market very dull.

Hankow Market

The British Chamber of Commerce at Hankow write as follows in their weekly circular dated Hankow, January 18:

FINANCE & MONEY MARKET

Silver has declined in London during the week, 1/4 d. ready and 1/2 d. forward, the respective quotations on the 17th instant being 35 and 34 1/2. The stock of silver in Shanghai on January 14 was estimated to be Tls. 29,100,000 and $21,500,000. Sterling quotations for T.T. have declined to 3s. 7d. while 4 m-s. credit Bills could be placed at 3s. 9d. January delivery with a cut for forward. The New York-London cross rate at the close was 42 1/2%. Chinese market rates: Shanghai Tails 97.325. Local currency $70.8. Native interest, 18 percent per annum.

EXPORTS

Owing to the approach of the Chinese New Year, dealers have generally been averse to entering into new engagements last week, and the various local markets have consequently been somewhat lifeless, while the American and European markets have also been for the most part apathetic.

IMPORTS

Owing to the proximity of China New Year dealers are busy closing their accounts and the market as a result is practically closed until after China New Year. Prices are firm and dealers are paying up well for their purchases although probably not clearing their goods until next month.

Coal Market

In their coal market report of yesterday, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

Japan Coal:—As the China New Year holidays commence tomorrow there has been absolutely no new business done during the past fortnight and there is nothing to report but the usual deliveries under contract: arrivals of Japan coal have fallen off considerably on account of the very severe weather they have been having recently over there and it will be noticed that only five coal-boats came in from Japan during the fortnight.

Fushun Coal:—No change.

Fuchung Anthracite:—Here again the same remarks as above apply and we do not expect to see any revival until after the holidays.

Kaiping Coal:—Following the market in Japan and in the East generally, the Kaiping position remains quite firm with enquiries emanating from several Southern ports. Owing, however, to the near approach of the native New Year holidays, deliveries have slackened during the last few days. It is however anticipated that a good demand will arise when business settles down again in two or three weeks time.

MISSIONS BEGIN FAMINE RELIEF

(China Press Correspondence)

Tsingtao, Jan. 21.—Famine relief work in Shantung has been begun by the Southern Baptist Famine Relief Committee. This organization did a great deal of work last spring and summer through its own men. A meeting of the committee has just been held in Tsingtao, and calls were issued for men from the Baptist stations further east to go to Taining in the south-western part of the province.

Conditions are severe around that city. For more than three months after the rains ceased thousands of acres still were lying under water. Fall wheat in many places could not be planted. This Baptist committee will aid not only around Tsingtao but in and near Tsinan, in Tsiyang, and in Yucheng if it can be arranged. One admirable feature is that relief will be given in exchange for work when possible.

The English Baptists have had a problem for some months in the break of the Yellow River near Lichen; this break of some 60 ft has not been repaired and word now comes that the ice at the mouth of the river is blocking the flow, so that the water is retreating from the Lichen region.

While some help has been sent into this field, it is inadequate and this increase of waters will complicate matters. The English Baptists had undertaken the relief of one station; it now seems that they need some foreign help to aid Rev. H. Payne, who is on the scene. American Baptists probably will send monetary help to the Lichen field.

Dr. Wu States The Case
For China

BY WU TING-FANG

HERE is now such a great change in men's views that any one may affirm belief in the universal brotherhood of man without eliciting much cynical comment. I believe in the oneness of humanity, and I hold that so long as this great truth is ignored, so long nations, like individuals, will continue to be selfish and seek to profit themselves at the expense of weaker neighbors.

From one point of view, history is one long, unbroken record of the spoliation of weak peoples by strong neighbors, and this policy of the jungle will continue to influence action between nations as long as the rulers of the world do not outgrow ideas which bind them to the period in human evolution when the club was the rule of right and justice.

I believe, however, that the same moral forces which have led to the substitution of the rule of law for the rule of the club in disputes between individuals are now at work to bring about a similar substitution in the settlement of disputes between nations.

These forces have now and then influenced action in European history. But in recent years they have found their most notable expression in the Hague Tribunal and in the League of Nations. When private individuals quarrel, resort is had to a court of law. Why should not nations do the same? And it is for a similar reason that I welcome the conference at Washington which President Harding summoned.

If it succeeds, a most powerful advance in the direction of eventually eliminating war as a method of settling international disputes will be registered. And even if nothing tangible comes out of the deliberations of the conference, it is certain to set men's minds thinking in a sense opposite to the continuance of the institution of war. In any view, it seems to me that it will do good.

In the interests of the peace of the world I would suggest that the conference should take up the question of extending the "Monroe Doctrine" to the Pacific Ocean and all the islands inside and bordering on it.

Soon after Admiral Dewey captured the Philippine Islands and it was evident that they would become American territory, I suggested to John Hay and other American statesmen that the extension of the Monroe Doctrine to the Pacific would be necessary in order to secure the safety of the islands. My proposal, however, was then deemed premature. The time, I think, has now come when the question should be seriously considered.

If you look at the map, it will be seen that lands belonging to different nations lie within the Pacific and that great countries border its waters. The geographic fact may be said to bind all these lands and countries in a common interest in the maintenance of the existing status quo in the sense that the present national distribution of territory shall be preserved.

This is particularly important in the case of China. And, therefore, the wise words of the far-sighted John Hay are of supreme interest in this connection. "The world's peace," America's great Secretary of State observed,

"rests with China, and whoever understands China socially, politically, economically, religiously, holds the key to the world's politics for the next five centuries."

On this view I suggest that the success or failure of the Washington conference depends on the manner in which the Chinese question will be handled. If the delegates of the participating power attend it with open minds and resolved to consider all questions in a fair and dispassionate spirit in order that war may be eventually eliminated and peace maintained, there is the probability of the objects of the conference being realized.

If, however, the delegates bring to the work of the conference minds full of prejudices and bent on securing advantages for their respective countries regardless of the rights and interests of others, it is to be feared that the great expectations of the conference will not be realized.

Limitation of space does not permit me to trace the history of the great revolution which led to the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty and the establishment of the Chinese republic in 1911. But it should be remembered that, since the establishment of the republic, China has been governed by antiquated, conservative officials and militarists, who, in consequence, have brought her to the existing deplorable condition.

To say, as it has been alleged,
that China is not to be a republic and that she lacks men with necessary qualifications to "run" the government in a republican way is a gross libel and a great insult to the Chinese people. The plain fact is that the powers of government have been in the hands of the reactionaries.

The men who have founded the Chinese republic and those who believe in it as an instrument for the modernization of China have been afforded an opportunity of governing China. This is a cardinal fact to be borne in mind.

This government, under the enlightened leadership of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, who is the originator of the Chinese republic, and supported by his colleagues, who are all progressive and experienced men, has been temporarily established at Canton for the purpose of working for the recovery of the powers of government from Peking and for the restoration of China to her rightful and proper condition.

We do not wish to blow our own trumpet. But a reference to our record of work may be permitted. As at present constituted, this Government has been in operation for not quite a year.

Very briefly, this is what we have done: The abolition of gambling, at a cost of $10,000,000 of yearly revenue; the introduction of the American municipal system; the demolition of mediaeval city walls and the construction of wide, metalled roads; the encouragement of education and other measures too numerous to be specified. It is there to be seen by all men.

Look, however, at the other side in Peking. Education is practically discouraged, and while money is forthcoming for military commanders, teachers go for months without their salaries, corruption is rife in nearly every department of government, taxes and government funds are arbitrarily seized by the various military officials.

The Peking government is entirely under the domination of the tuchuns and super-tuchuns;
in other words, of the military;
and the so-called President, Hsu Shih-chang, is unable even to appoint a high official or transact any important matter without first getting the consent of these military leaders.

All Chinese merchants, bankers and the peoples in general are emphatically dissatisfied with the Peking administration. It is no exaggeration to state the Peking government exists only nominally, and it has not actually disappeared simply because of the recognition of the foreign powers whose representatives reside in Peking.

I assert that so long as the foreign powers continue to recognize the Peking administration as the Government of the Chinese republic, so long will China continue in the present deplorable condition.

Let the foreign powers withdraw their recognition from the Peking administration, which is admittedly illegal and unconstitutional, and there could be little doubt that all the provinces would soon recognize the national authority of the Canton government and a united China would instantly become a fact and a reality. Honest, enlightened and progressive men would be employed, and, not least, foreign trade would increase tenfold in volume and value.

In a word, China would soon stand erect as a modern state governed democratically.

We are a peaceful people and have everything that is necessary to make us a powerful factor for peace in the world. We do not covet the territory of other people, as we have all the land needed for future expansion. We have also vast stores of natural resources, waiting only to be tapped. We do not want the raw materials of others.

We have lived as a nation for thousands of years, during which

How New U. S. Tax Will Work

(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Dec. 31.—Changes in federal taxes voted by Congress last month will come into full force tomorrow. Here's how they will affect Americans:

When they ride on a railroad train or an inland or coastwise steamer they no longer will have to pay the government eight percent of the amount of their fare and eight percent of the cost of their seat, berth or stateroom.

When they ship freight they will not be assessed an extra three percent of the cost. Likewise they can send packages by express or parcels post without having to give up a "war tax."

When they visit the corner drug store for a bottle of proprietary medicine, a tube of tooth paste, a toilet preparation or the like they will escape the vexa-tious stamp taxes.

When they go to a soda fountain they no longer will find Uncle Sam holding out his hand for a penny on each ten cents or fraction that they pay the clerk for a drink or a plate of ice cream.

If they want to sport a pair of shoes costing more than $10 or a shirt costing more than $3 they will not have to lay out a tax.
These and all of the other so-called luxury taxes on clothing, as well as those on umbrellas, purses, sun shades, picture frames, trunks, valises, pocketbooks, etc., go into the discard tomorrow.

NO TAX ON 10-CENT MOVIES

If they live in a place that still can boast of a ten cent movie show or other place of amusement they will not be assessed a penny tax. If the charge exceeds ten cents, however, they will continue to pay a war levy at the present rates of a cent for each ten cents or fraction.

All heads of families with dependents will get a slight reduction in their income tax during the new year, the extent being $8 for each dependent as a result of the increase from $200 to $400 in the exemption on account of dependents.

Some classes of business, big and little, get some relief under the new tax bill, but other classes will have their taxes increased. Corporations which did not fall within the excess pro-fitting making class during the war will have their taxes advanced through the increase of 2 1/2 percent in the corporation income tax. Corporations falling within this class include the railroads and public utilities, the incomes of which are regulated by federal or state commissions through the control over rates.

The excess profits tax is repealed, effective tomorrow, but the result will not be reflected in federal revenues until the calendar year 1923 as next year of the profits made in 1921.
Likewise corporations will not begin paying at the increased

we developed a culture and civilization of our own, the central teaching of which enforces belief in reason as the chief factor in the settlement of disputes.

Let America assist the democracy of China to secure the international recognition of its legal government, and immediately there will be a central government with the power to restore unity and to enforce order and peace throughout the country.

China cannot be saved from the outside. In her case, as in other cases, salvation is the work of internal forces. And the internal forces which can bring the great gifts of peace and prosperity and go of national salvation can only be organized and rightly directed by a national ruling body de-riving its authority from the Chinese constitution.

The authority of Peking is admittedly not derived from the constitution. But the government thereof President Sun Yat-sen is the chief executive derives its authority from the constitution.

Finally, I repeat that the unification of China can be effected if and as soon as foreign intervention comes to an end in the shape of withdrawing international recognition from Peking.

A united China means the establishment of a national government which shall transform China into a modern state, economically sound, and based on the enduring foundations of Chinese culture.

And when this is realized, all the other issues involved in the Far Eastern question will be automatically solved, and the saying of John Hay will come true and the Washington conference will have accomplished an immortal work.

The Genesis And Evolution Of
A Superstition

BY WALTER B. RADWEN

From time immemorial certain natives of India have worshipped a smallpox goddess named Matah, and when an epidemic of small-pox is feared or has already arrived (for among the insular hordes of certain districts smallpox is seldom absent) they seek to appease the goddess by cutting themselves upon the forehead and rubbing smallpox matter into the wound.
The term "inoculation" applied to this practise is derived from two Latin words, in oculo, because the natives cut themselves between the eyes. From this ancient superstition the whole modern process of "inoculation" and "vaccination" originated.

In the course of time the practise became separated from the worship of Matah, and in the year 1721 Lady Wortley Montague, who was residing with her husband, the then English Ambassador at Constantinople, heard the story of certain old women in that city who made a trade of inoculating children with smallpox matter—not upon the forehead, but upon the arm—as a preventive against smallpox.

It was popularly believed that everybody must have smallpox at some time, and therefore it was urged that the disease should be given to children artificially at as early an age as possible, so that they should not contract it naturally in after years. It being a popular idea (which was quite erroneous) that if persons suffered from smallpox once they would never suffer from it again.

Lady Wortley Montague wrote a glowing letter upon the subject to her royal and aristocratic friends, strongly urging that this method of so-called "prevention" should be adopted in England. The Public Health Act did not come into being until a century and a half later;
and, consequently, it was the case in England as in India and Turkey, wherever humanity was crowded together in insubstantial surroundings, straggled nature taught her practical lessons to the community by a visitation of small pox.

The result of Lady Wortley Montague's appeal was that royalty favored the inoculation rite; the practise became universal and held sway in England for eighty years.

At the end of this period, it was found that smallpox was worse than ever, for not only was everybody being actually inoculated with smallpox matter, but the sufferers were spreading the disease by infection among those who had already suffered from it.

The medical men of the period were at their wits' ends to know what to do. At this juncture, namely, in 1796 a fresh prophet of inoculation appeared. His name was Edward Jenner.

Living at the little village of Berkeley in Gloucestershire, where he practised as an apothecary (though he had never passed a medical examination) he came across the common dairymaid's superstition of that district, to the effect that milkers who suffered from cowpox (which they contracted by milking cows whose udders were affected with that allment) would never get smallpox; and although all the cow doctors of the district laughed the legend to scorn, Edward Jenner accepted it as a scientific fact.

He wrote a paper on the subject and forwarded it to the Royal Society, suggesting that as cowpox protected against smallpox, cowpox must be smallpox of the cow!
His knowledge of pathology could not have been very extensive or he would have known there was no analogy whatever between the two diseases, therefore, in logical consequence,

WOULD YOU RATHER BE A BAD LITTLE ANGEL, OR A GOOD LITTLE DEVIL?

sistence with his theory, the one could not possibly protect against the other.

This was ultimately proved to be the case in a very marked manner when Lord Robert Grosvenor, only ten years of age, who had been inoculated with cow-pox matter by Jenner himself, fell a prey to small-pox, and for some time hovered between life and death. He ultimately recovered, and then was introduced for the first time the rather lame excuse of "mitigation" by no less an authority than the man who had declared it was a "preventive." "His Lordship had not been vaccinated," said he, "he would surely have died!"

Owing to this form of inoculation being associated with the cow, it was called vaccination (from the Latin word vacca, a cow) in contradistinction to the inoculation with smallpox matter itself. But the theory was the same in both cases, namely, smallpox in some form, must be given artificially in order to protect against smallpox being contracted naturally.

They did not know then what is known now, that the only disease to which cowpox bears any analogy is syphilis, which probably accounts for the numerous disasters and fatalities resulting from its inoculation into the human system.

The striking fact remains that in every outbreak of smallpox for the last fifty or sixty years, where authentic statistics are available, the disease has begun with a vaccinated person and the majority of the sufferers have been of the vaccinated class. Frequently repeated re-vaccination has been advocated as a remedy for its failure, but if vaccination were a true preventive "successful" re-vaccination should be an impossibility. If cowpox cannot protect against itself, how is it going to protect against genuine smallpox?

I have, perhaps, seen as much smallpox as any man in England and have personally treated a large number of cases. I will quote one case out of hundreds that have come under my notice, which, to my mind, is conclusive upon the question of vaccination protection.

It was that of a little girl named Daisy Sabin, aged four years, living at No. 5 Linden road, Gloucester, at the time of the smallpox epidemic of 1896. She was "successfully vaccinated" in six places—three on each arm—by a specially appointed military vaccine operator.
And yet, three weeks and three days afterward (which is viewed as an absolutely perfect protection period) she contracted smallpox in one of its worst forms and died. Her little unvaccinated sister, aged eighteen months, also took smallpox, but only in the mildest and quite harmless form (called discreet smallpox, such as is evidently present in Nottingham at the present time) and she recovered without a mark on her face.

The official statistics of the Registrar-General prove conclusively that the more vaccination has been practised, the more smallpox has raged, but where good sanitation has been introduced and vaccination neglected, smallpox has been unable to gain a footing.

Smallpox is a fifth disease. Get rid of the fifth and you get rid of the disease; but to suppose that you can prevent disease by introducing disease is as logical as trying to make a boy fruitful by teaching him to lie.

Chempedak Rubber & Gambier Estate, Ltd.

The annual general meeting of the Chempedak Rubber & Gambier Estate, Limited, was held yesterday afternoon at the offices of the secretaries and general managers.

Mr. A. J. Welch, chairman, presided and was supported by R. N. Truman and A. F. Naser, directors and C. J. L. Stewart, secretary.

The chairman's speech follows: "Gentlemen: This year it is again my painful duty to have to express the deep regret of the Board at the death of another of their colleagues, Mr. W. S. Jackson."

"Mr. Jackson, who always took the keenest interest in the affairs of the Estate, had been a director of the Company since 1912 and the loss of his services and advice is keenly felt by those of us who remain."

"To turn to the formal business of the meeting, the report and accounts have been in your hands for several days and I will assume that I have your permission to take them as read.

"The accounts are presented in the usual form and it has been the aim of your Directors to give you as much information as possible; certain tables that it has been the custom in past years to include in the report have been omitted as the inauguration of alternate day tapping renders the figures useless for comparative purposes."

"The year's working as you will see from the profit and loss account has resulted in a loss of Tails 19,650.38, of which Tails 2,135.73 represents interest on advances and Tails 3,948.22 loss on exchange on the drafts drawn against shipments which were outstanding at the end of the last financial year."

"The actual loss on Exchange was Tails 4,958.97 but by utilizing the sum of Tails 1,010.75 standing to the credit of exchange fluctuation reserve the net loss was reduced to the figure appearing in the profit and loss account."

RESULTS SATISFACTORY

"This result covering as it does the working during the worst 12 months of the recent slump in rubber, does not compare unfavorably with those of other companies that have issued their reports recently."

"The cost of production at 49.96 cents per pound includes all items of expenditure except the loss in exchange and compares very favorably with the cost in previous years. Being the average cost for the year it does not, however, give you a correct idea of the very large economies that have been effected in running the Estate, and to emphasize this point I may tell you that, while the Estate F. O. B. cost was 49.46 cents for the first three months of the year under review the cost for the last three months of the Company's financial year had been reduced to 28.34 cents. For the coming year we anticipate that the cost will be still further materially reduced."

"Directors' fees you will notice have been charged to profit and loss account, but the amount of them has been credited to sundry creditors and will not be drawn until the Company is in a more flourishing financial position."

"Turning to the balance sheet there is very little that needs explanation as capital expenditure during the year was reduced to the lowest possible point, only some Tails 954.99 having been spent on the upkeep of the immature area."

"The financial position of the Company on October 31, 1921 was that the cash liabilities exceeded the liquid assets by Tails 37,635.84 as compared with a deficit of Tails 17,157.87 at the end of the previous year. This, gentlemen, would appear to be a very desperate state of affairs, but in reality it is not so bad, since the present price of rubber allows of the deficit being gradually reduced each month and with Rubber at 70 Straits cents per pound the profit for one year would wipe out all our indebtedness."

ESTATES IN GOOD CONDITION

"As regards planting matters the visiting agent in his last report states that the Estate generally is in a satisfactory condition, buildings are in good repair and the gardens have not suffered from the drastic reductions made in expenditure. With the idea of effecting still further economies and of conserving the top soil, the gardens, which have hitherto been clean weeded, have been allowed to come under fine grass, and the weeding costs now amount to about 15 cents per acre per month."

"Pests and diseases gave very little trouble during the year and the visiting agent reports that the Estate is practically free from disease."

"As I told you last year the whole mature area of the Estate has been put on to alternate day tapping with most gratifying results as regards costs. In November 1920 on daily tapping each pound of Rubber cost 15.44 cents for tapping labour only, in November 1921 on alternate day tapping with a 10 percent smaller output this cost had been reduced to 7.07 cents per pound."

"I don't think that there is anything more that I can tell you about the Estate, but before sitting down I would like to record the best thanks of the Board to our manager, Mr. Robertson, who was so efficiently conducted the affairs of the Estate single handed during the most critical and trying year in the history of the rubber industry and to our Malacca agents, Messrs. Sime Darby & Co., Ltd., for the very able manner in which they have seconded his efforts."

"That is all I have to say, gentlemen, but if there are any questions you would like to ask, I shall be pleased to answer to the best of my ability."

The following resolutions were then passed:

That the Directors' report and
